

JUSTICE OR INJUSTICE?

1. Someone in class needs a pencil because theirs has broken. They steal one from someone sitting next to them.
2. Someone in class needs a pencil because theirs has broken. They ask someone sitting next to them if they can borrow a spare pencil. They return it at the end of the class.
3. Two friends are playing cards. One friend leaves the room to get a glass of water. While she is away her friend swaps the cards so she gets the best ones and her friend doesn't know.
4. Two brothers get pocket money for chopping wood. One brother is lazy and only chops a small amount. The other brother does most of the work. They both get paid the same amount.
5. A boy at school steals someone's lunch. The teacher asks who did it. The boy keeps quiet. The whole class has to stay late.
6. A boy at school steals someone's lunch. The teacher asks who did it. The boy owns up and has to stay late.
7. An old lady who lives down the street has her lawnmower stolen. The thieves say she is too old to use it and doesn't need it any more.
8. A kid at school is being teased because he has red hair. One of his classmates sticks up for him and tells the other kids to stop being bullies.
9. There are two cakes but three sisters. The older sisters grab the cakes and their little sister misses out.
10. The shopkeeper counts the money wrong and gives you too much change. You tell them that they made a mistake and hand the money back.